

Why is there such a push to punish the development of new technology? Why can't I have my local weather and traffic through a service I pay for? The NAB and FCC should not dictate what I can access through a private connection with XM radio. That's why I respectfully request the FCC to reject NAB's petition 04-160 and any future petitions of a similar nature. regards, spencer narron